Doctor
GUILLERMO COMPEAN JIMENEZ
Director, Inter-American Tropical Tuna Commission (IATTC)
San Diego, California
United States of America

Dear Dr Jimenez:

Receive a cordial greeting from the Undersecretariat for Livestock of the Secretariat for Agriculture and Livestock of Honduras.

On this occasion, I wish to express to you and to the Inter-American Tropical Tuna Commission (CIAT) the interest of Honduras in renewing the status of Cooperating Non-Party, in accordance with paragraph 6 of Resolution C-07-02 of the Commission.

At the same time, we express our willingness to continue, as we have already done, carrying forward the provisions of resolution C-07-02 of the Commission while the process of accession of Honduras to the Antigua Convention is moving forward.

For this reason, the Commission has already information related to Honduras data on historical fisheries in the IATTC area; annual catch and effort data and the length-frequency distribution of catches as well as our current fishing presence in the area.

Although at the moment it was not possible to develop individually research programs in the area of the IATTC, we reiterate our willingness to develop and participate cooperatively in these programs when the Commission so requires and to share that information and its results.

In terms of compliance requirements, Honduras respects all current conservation measures, such as the capacity limits established for tuna vessels, so there have been no information requirements regarding alleged infractions.

We are pleased to inform you that Honduras has enacted Decree No. 106-2015 of August 5, 2017, of the new Fisheries and Aquaculture Law, which guarantees management and conservation measures to ensure compliance with observer programs, inspections at sea and in port, and Vessel Monitoring Systems (VMS). In this way, the capacity to respond to alleged infractions to the IATTC measures by our vessels is improved and the readiness and willingness to continue communicating to the IATTC the different actions that are taken, for instance against vessels that commit infractions, is maintained.

We also declare Honduras readiness to participate as an observer in the plenary, subsidiary and scientific meetings of the IATTC.

In this context, Mr. Director, I kindly ask you to incorporate the request of Honduras regarding the renewal of the status of Cooperating Non-Party in the agenda of the 93rd meeting of the IATTC, to be held next August in San Diego, and in which we plan to accredit a Delegation from Honduras.

Thank you for your attention to this note, and please receive the assurances of my consideration and respect.

Sincerely,

INDONESIA'S APPLICATION FOR COOPERATING NON-MEMBER STATUS OF INTER-AMERICAN TROPICAL TUNA COMMISSION (IATTC)

I. Introduction

Indonesia is one of the largest tuna producing countries in the world. Tuna resources are spread out almost all over Indonesia waters include archipelagic and territorial waters as well as IEEZ. Contribution of tuna fishery both to gross domestic product (GDP) and working opportunity cannot be ignored. Tuna also is one of the primary export commodities that are exported in various products such as fresh tuna, frozen tuna, canned tuna. In 2017, export of tuna products (fresh, frozen and canned) mostly to China, USA, Japan, EU, Chinese Taipei, Australia and ASEAN Countries.

As we are aware, Regional Fisheries Management Organisations (RFMOs) are of central importance to sustainable management tuna resources in the world. In 2004, the Government of Indonesia has drawn line policies according to Fisheries Law No. 31 of 2004 which is also based on UNCLOS 1982. The Law has explicitly provided room for the Government of Indonesia to participate actively in the membership of body /institution/organization at the regional or international level with respect to the cooperation for regional and international fishery management, such as cooperation for conservation and management of straddling and highly migratory fish stocks through existing RFMOs.

Currently, Indonesia has actively participated in the Regional Fisheries Management Organizations (RFMOs) namely: (i) Indian Ocean Tuna Commission (IOTC) as a member since 2007, (ii) Commission for the Conservation of Southern Bluefin Tuna (CCSBT) as a member since 2008. and (iii) Western and Central Pacific Fisheries Commission (WCPFC) as a member since 2013. This participation reflects a commitment of Indonesia to be involved in achieving sustainable fisheries management through international cooperation.

Since 2004, Indonesia has participated in IATTC Annual Meeting and renew the status annually. With reference to the Resolution C-07-02 on Criteria for Attaining the Status of Cooperating Non-Party or Fishing Entity in IATTC, Indonesia would like to renew the status of Indonesia as Cooperating Non Member to the IATTC for the year of 2018/2019.
