Vacancy Announcement

Full Stack Developer for the Inter-American Tropical Tuna Commission (IATTC)

The Inter-American Tropical Tuna Commission (IATTC) invites applications for the position of Full Stack Developer. This is a full-time appointment based at the headquarters of this international organization, located in La Jolla, California, U.S.A.

The IATTC is the regional fisheries management organization responsible for the implementation of the 2003 Antigua Convention, the main objective of which is to ensure the long-term conservation and sustainable use of the fish stocks covered by the Convention. The IATTC employs a scientific staff that operates under the supervision of the Director of the Commission and of its Coordinator of Scientific Research. The functions of the scientific staff are defined in article XIII of the Convention and include, among others, conducting scientific research, providing information and scientific advice and collecting statistical data. More information about the IATTC can be found at www.iattc.org.

The selected applicant will work as part of the IATTC Data Collection and Database Program. Duties of the selected applicant will be:

- Manage an ongoing transition to, and the full adoption of, Office 365 cloud based services for all staff, including the development, maintenance and support of a SharePoint Online-based intranet.
- Development and maintenance of web applications based on the .Net stack.
- Support the on-going development and maintenance of a public web site based on the Kentico CMS.
- Communicate with the staff on a regular basis to evaluate the need for changes to web resources, and work under the direction of the Head of the Data Collection and Database Program and his superiors to plan and implement these changes.
- Work with the IT staff to support activities as appropriate and required.

Selection Criteria

A bachelor's or higher degree in a relevant field, such as Web Development, and experience in the use, management, customization and support of Office 365 cloud based services, with an emphasis on SharePoint Online. Knowledge of the Kentico CMS is desirable but not required.

Candidates should possess the following skills:

- Experience in the use, development, customization and support of SharePoint Online and other Office 365 cloud services.
- Experience in the development of applications based on the .Net Framework.
- Willingness to develop new skills and learn new technologies.
- Creativity to adapt current methods or develop new methods as required to solve problems.
- Strong inter-personal skills and experience working as a part of a team, as well as working independently.
- Willingness to work in an international multi-cultural setting.
- Excellent communication skills, both oral and written.
- Working knowledge of English. Working knowledge of Spanish or fluency in both languages, written and oral, will be considered as an asset.
- Willingness to work in an office setting, and willingness to travel when necessary.

Other desired skills:

- Familiarity with the use of, administration and development of web sites using the Kentico CMS.

Salary and Allowances

Commensurate with qualifications, skills, and experience. The base salary for an applicant with a bachelor's degree will be equivalent to an adjusted US Federal pay grade GS 13:1 (US$ 103,483 per year).

Allowances include annual leave with pay, sick leave with pay, medical, dental and life insurance and a defined contribution pension plan.

Other incentives

The IATTC offers a balanced and casual work environment in a modern facility at a very attractive location. The staff includes citizens from various countries who share a rich cultural diversity. Most have been with the organization for a considerable part of their careers, and enjoy a number of recreational activities to which the surrounding region is very well suited due to its climate and geographical diversity.

Availability

The candidate chosen for the post should be available to report at IATTC headquarters late November 2018, or as soon as possible thereafter.

Applications

Applications may be submitted in either English or Spanish and should be sent no later than October 31, 2018 in electronic format to tmusano@iattc.org, or to the following address:
